The abstract submission deadline is September 10, 2010.

- An abstract is strictly limited to 1.800 characters. All characters inserted, including spaces, count towards the total. During the submission process the number of remaining characters is indicated.
- All abstracts should be structured as follows: Title, Author, Authors' affiliations, Purpose, Methods, Results and Conclusions. Please note that abstracts without concrete results will not be considered.
- All abstracts should be submitted in Microsoft Word®
- Acceptance letters will be sent by September 24, 2010, to notify the first author of acceptance or rejection together with the time schedule of the presentation. The complexity of the programme will not allow schedule changes.
